Please give a short description of your organisation/group (regular activities, member of, etc.):

The mission of the CHANCE FOR LIFE Foundation is to develop the communities in Romania, by supporting educationally, emotionally and socially children and youth. CHANCE FOR LIFE aims at creating the civic attitude of children and at developing their will and capacity to get involved in the life of the communities they live in.

The type of services provided by Chance for Life are social, educational, and civil society orientated.

Our main projects are:

SPECT-ACTORS FOR NON-DISCRIMINATION

In partnership with other 15 romanian NGO's, we promote the concepts of non-discrimination and tolerance towards the persons in risk of social exclusion, through the forum theatre method.

CHANCE FOR LIFE Scholarship

The goal of the project is to sustain the development of a group, made up of 17 children, with high intellectual capacities, but coming from poor families, by providing an emotional and educational support in order to identify and increase one's personal potential.

HOPE FOR TODAY

The aim is to give a group of 21 institutionalized HIV positive teenagers the chance to live in a family and develop to their full potential.

WORKSHOP FOR THE FUTURE

The "Workshop for the future" offers, 13 HIV-positive young adults, from placement centres, about 18 years old, the possibility to work 4 hours a day. The aim of the project is to help them to get independent life skills, to understand the importance of working and managing their own salary plus, to help them understand the importance of responsibility as relates to having a job.

CHANCE FOR LIFE Ploiesti

The aim is creating and maintaining volunteers clubs in public schools in Ploiesti town. Enabling them to prepare social theater plays based on reality issues. The ultimate goal is to increase the level of tolerance and public participation in their living community.

CHANCE FOR LIFE SULINA

The goal is to develop a serial of projects based on a young volunteer basis in this very small city in the Delta of Danube. This reaches to increase the awarness of the civil society impact and the level of public participation.

VODAFONE SCHOLARSHIP SULINA

The goal of the project is to sustain the development of a group, made up of 30 children, with high intellectual capacities, coming from but poor families, by providing an emotional and educational support in order to identify and increase one's personal potential.
